

Presentation

Uppsala University of the Third Age was founded in 1979. It is supported by Folkuniversitetet in Uppsala. There are also links with University of Uppsala. Uppsala University of the Third Age is neutral regarding party politics and religious affiliation.

The principal objectives of Uppsala University of the Third Age are

- to arrange study activities for members, such as specialist lectures, lecture series, study circles, field trips and study visits
- to stimulate research activities
- to maintain contacts with similar organizations in Sweden and abroad.

You will find the statutes in English here

Uppsala University of the Third Age is a member of AIUTA (International Association of Universities of the Third Age) www.aiu3a.com as well as of EFOS (European Federation of Older Students at the Universities) www.efos-europa.eu

Educational activities organised by Uppsala University of the Third Age

A specialist lecture is offered every second Tuesday (approximately 20 a year). About 70 lecture series and study circles in various fields, such as Art, History, Medicine, Law and a variety of language courses, are organised each term. Finally around 20 study visits/field trips are offered every year.